

Amanda Kimbel

(270) 844-9900 | amanda.kimbel@uky.edu

OBJECTIVE

Position in planning and marketing with a well-established company to utilize the analytical strengths of my engineering background with the business acumen of my MBA degree.

EDUCATION

University of Kentucky – Gatton College

Master of Business Administration

Six Sigma Green Belt Training and Certification (February 2016)

June 2015- Present

GPA: 4.0/4.0

University of Missouri at Rolla

Bachelors of Science in Mining Engineering

Minor in Explosives Engineering

May 2006-December 2009

GPA: 3.7/4.0

EXPERIENCE

Valvoline

MBA Internship – Project Connect Team Member

Lexington, KY

July 2015 to Present

- Serve as team lead on a cross-functional team of four MBA interns working with Valvoline representatives
- Provide consulting expertise on both a marketing and a supply chain project

Dodge Hill Mine #1 (Patriot Coal)

Engineering Manager

Sturgis, KY

June 2013 to April 2015

- Prepared maps, plans, and submissions for government agencies
- Managed mine site engineering department and oversaw the surveyors
- Compiled and analyzed bids for engineering projects

Bluegrass Business Complex (Patriot Coal)

Engineer/Management Trainee

Henderson, KY

January 2010 to June 2013

- Prepared maps, plans, and submissions for government agencies
- Arranged and implemented an Arbor Day celebration on reclaimed mine ground with local school children
- Presented at Zoning Committee and Henderson County Mining Committee meetings

QUALIFICATIONS

- Creative idea generator and problem solver
- Proven success in implementing events
- Assimilates information quickly
- Analytical and technological capabilities
- Excellent rapport with co-workers at all levels
- Positive, enthusiastic temperament

INVOLVEMENT

- SME (Society for Mining, Metallurgy, and Exploration): President 2008-2009
- MBA Student Association: President 2015-2016
- Volunteer experience with Habitat for Humanity
- Cross cultural volunteer experience in Mexico and Canada
- Tau Beta Pi (engineering honor society) alumni
- Regular Red Cross blood donor
- Cross cultural exchange to Germany